

State, local, and tribal governments use many laws and policies to regulate alcohol

State, local, and tribal governments use a variety of laws and policies to regulate the sale and consumption of alcohol. For example, 7 states prohibit happy hours, 8 states ban the sale of alcohol on Sundays, and 31 states have keg registration laws.